

FRIDAY 18TH OCTOBER 2013– THE
UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH SCHOOL OF LAW
"MAKING THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN UNION MORE PRODUCTIVE"

Joëlle Godard Memorial Lecture by Advocate General Eleanor Sharpston QC

The Franco-British Lawyers Society, in Association with the Edinburgh School of Law, invites you to a memorial lecture for Joëlle Godard entitled "Making the Court of Justice of the European Union More Productive" by Eleanor Sharpston QC, Advocate General at the Court of Justice of the European Communities. The lecture will be held at the Edinburgh Law School, Lecture Theatre 175, at 6 pm and will be followed by a drinks reception in the adjoining Lorimer Room.

Attendance at the event will qualify for 1 hour CPD. The event is accredited with the Faculty of Advocates (Scotland). Solicitors in Scotland self-certify.

More information @ fbls.eu

Picture by Gregory Fox, courtesy of the University of Michigan Law School

Association des Juristes Franco-Britanniques
Franco-British Lawyers Society

Joëlle Godard
Memorial Lecture by Eleanor Sharpston
QC, Advocate
General at the ECJ

18th October 2013
Edinburgh Law
School – Lecture
Theatre 175 @ 6 pm

Followed by a drinks reception

Free event

Qualifies for 1 hour
CPD

