The Society is a registered charity and its aims are to:

- Advance public education and training in the practice of Scottish, French, English, Welsh and Northern Irish law generally and, in particular, in the context of the European Union and its constitutive treaties; and
- Facilitate relations and exchanges between Scottish, French, English, Welsh and Irish lawyers, thereby contributing to the expansion of legal, political, economic and cultural relations between Great Britain, Northern Ireland and France.

Information on the Society and its programme is available on the Society's website: <https://fbbs.eu>
